

Academic Review Checklist

Please take some time to consider reasons for your academic performance during this past semester. Check all the reasons that may apply. Bring this form with you during your scholastic standing advising appointment and be prepared to discuss your experiences.

Academic Concerns

- Poor high school / background
- Poor study habits
- Poor writing / reading / math skills
- Test-taking difficulties
- Unclear academic / career goals
- Heavy course load
- Time management problems

Personal Concerns

- Working too many hours
- Physical / Mental health concerns
- Personal / family problems
- Too many extracurricular activities
- Lack of goals / motivation / interests
- Financial problems
- Not focused or serious enough

Other issues you wish to discuss with a scholastic standing advisor:

What institutional factors made your academic experience difficult for you? Mark an item with a check mark if it was an occasional problem for you, and with an X if it interfered with your academic progress on a regular basis. List additional issues in the "Other" category.
