Pass/No Credit Policies

- Only free elective courses may be taken on a pass/no credit basis. You may not select this option for a course being used to satisfy your major, minor, liberal arts distribution requirements, or other graduation credential. Courses that could potentially satisfy an unfulfilled requirement may not be taken pass/no credit.
- Courses through Study Abroad may not be taken on a pass/no credit basis.
- Honors seminars and department-based honors courses and honors sections of courses may not be taken on a pass/no credit basis.
- Students pursuing a second degree through SAS may not use the pass/no credit option.
- The pass/no credit option may be applied to only one course in each of your final two semesters before graduation.
- Deadlines are binding. The pass/no credit option may not be rescinded once the deadline has passed.

Deadlines for submission

- Fall semester: September 30th
- Spring semester: February 20th
- Six-week summer session: 10th calendar day after class begins
- Winter session courses may not be taken on a pass/no credit basis

By signing this form I attest that I have completed any degree requirement that this course could be used to fulfill, and know that I cannot use this course to fulfill any requirements of my major(s), minor(s), or liberal arts distribution requirements.
